Criteria & Rules:

- Non-Chamber Members with an active business located in Placentia are eligible
- Chamber Members within Placentia and surrounding areas are eligible
- You may nominate more than one business including yourself
- Business that meet the award requirements are encouraged to apply directly for the award
- Businesses should not be nominated in more than one category and will be judged in the most appropriate category
- Businesses may not be nominated for a category they won the previous year.
- Nominations must be received by December 31, 2021.

These letters of recommendation are critical for your nominee to be considered and potentially win their category. The people voting may not be familiar with your nominee, so what is said in your essay and reference letters is what will compel them to choose your nominee. Please take the time to represent your nominee in his/her best light. If you believe your nominee deserves to be recognized as the award-winner in their category, they also deserve a thorough nomination from you so that they have the best chance of winning the award.

A gala to present the awards will be held at Alta Vista Country Club at 777 Alta Vista Avenue, Placentia on February 3, 2022. The event will go from 6:00-9:00pm with the program from 6:00-8:00pm and cocktails and dancing the last hour. The cost is $70 per person for early bird pricing. $75 after January 24 and at the door.
